Newly qualified and experienced Guides, London

We are looking for caring, loving and passionate guides who are keen to work in a supportive and authentic Montessori environment. You will work in small teams of highly qualified teachers, and be assigned a mentor who will help develop your knowledge of Montessori Practice. Regular coaching will deepen your skills and give you the confidence to grow as a Guide. We are looking for Guides who are committed to not only their own development, but those of the children they are entrusted to care for. Please contact us for more information.
