

Montessori Elementary Teacher required in Falmouth, Cornwall

Exciting opportunity for a creative and self-motivated educator to establish Montessori Elementary provision on the south-west coast.

We are a collective of parents looking for a creative and self-motivated educator for a new class of six children aged 6 to 10 years. Our children have thrived in Children's House and home-school settings and now need a Montessori elementary teacher to guide them.

We seek an imaginative person who can lead and collaborate with us in creating a Montessori prepared environment to engage and support the children's learning in this phase of their development. The classroom will have access to a garden and other areas for outdoor exploration are within easy reach.

This class will be the start of Montessori elementary provision in this region of the UK and as such, this role offers opportunities for professional growth.

The ideal candidate will be flexible, caring and have experience of working with young people. In addition to these qualities candidates will need:

- Montessori Diploma for 6–12 years
- Degree in education, humanities or sciences
- Excellent written and spoken English
- Commitment to inclusivity and Montessori philosophy
- References and an Enhanced DBS.
- Current First Aid and Safeguarding training is desirable.

Working hours initially will either be Monday to Friday, mornings only, term-time OR 3 x 5-hour days to be agreed between the parents and teacher. Ideally we would like someone who is able to begin at the start of Summer term 2022 or before, however there is flexibility for the right candidate.

The salary offered is £26,000 per year with paid annual leave – both pro rata.

Applicants must be eligible to live and work in the UK. To apply, please email your CV with a covering letter, explaining your suitability for the position.
