

MONTESSORI PART-TIME NANNY NEEDED

1 year old / E2 9FH, Cambridge Heath Station / Bethnal Green station

BACKGROUND

Hi, we are a family living in East London with a baby boy who is currently 7 months old. We'd like to find a part-time, long-term nanny with a Montessori qualification to look after our son starting July/August 2024 for the hours when the mother returns to work. Dad is British, and Mum is Taiwanese, we speak English and Mandarin Chinese to our child.

JOB DESCRIPTION

We are looking for a mindful and caring person who will support our son's development using Montessori philosophy to:

- Take care of his nursing and physical needs, such as meals, naps, toileting (nappy changing)
- Offer indoor and outdoor activities tailored to his interests and developmental needs

LOCATION

We are close to Cambridge Heath overground station. This is a very nice location with many baby and toddler friendly attractions nearby.

HOURS

- Ideally 13:30-17:30 from Monday to Thursday afternoon. This might vary depending on the working schedule of the mother which is currently in discussion with her employer.
- We will consider applicants available for at least 16-24 hours per week.

SALARY

- We offer at least London living wage. The actual hourly rate will depend on the level of experience and the skill set of the candidate.

CONTACT

Please send your self-introduction and resume via email to the mother Eva at:

Evaliu1608@gmail.com

- In the Email headline please write:
Application: Your full name + the number of hours you will be available
- Please include a summary of your experience in the body of the email and attach your resume as a PDF file.